LONGLEAT & THE HISTORIC CITY OF BATH... As featured on BBC's Animal Park!

Monday 13th – Wednesday 15th August 2012 (3 Days)

Short Break

This is an experience like no other with incredibly close encounters with some of the fiercest, cutest and strangest animals from around the world. There's no need to travel to Africa to view wild animals, since the Longleat estate in Wiltshire has been home to a fantastic collection for forty years. Longleat isn't just a safari park, as the Elizabethan house was the first stately home to open its doors to the public after the Second World War and is today regarded as one of the best examples of Elizabethan architecture in Britain and one of the most beautiful stately homes. Over the many years further attractions have evolved resulting in Longleat becoming one of Britain's most popular tourist attractions. You can get lost in the Hedge Maze, voyage on the Safari Boats, experience simulator rides, journey on the narrow gauge railway or pop along with the children to meet Postman Pat and his friends in their very own Greendale Village! There's always something new to discover around every corner. Our included Passport ticket allows entry into all twelve attractions including the house and safari park.

D-DAY LANDINGS IN NORMANDY

TUESDAY 4TH –SATURDAY 8TH SEP 2012 (5 Days)

Holiday

Enjoy Normandy's warm hospitality, its unique blend of maritime traditions and rural way of life. Marvel at its historic towns and monuments, stroll down quiet country lanes and enjoy local dishes in picturesque villages, or sip a drink by the quayside of one of its old ports while fishermen repair their nets and seagulls soar overhead.

The stretch of beach along the Calvados coast is world famous for the part it played in turning around World War II on 6th June 1944, when British, Canadian and American troops broke through Nazi defences. With its 350 miles of coastline and richly varied regions, Normandy gives the visitor a wonderful choice of landscapes, scenery and culture : the stunning beauty of the cliffs at Etretat or the long sandy beaches, steeped in history, from Caen to Arromanches, the Seine Valley winding between wooded hills and chalk escarpments, the craggy hills of "Norman Switzerland", and the patchwork of fields and hedges of the Calvados region with its orchards and timber-framed cottages.

Staying at The Mercure-Lisieux hotel

The Mercure-Lisieux hotel is located on the outskirts of town, close to the Basilica of Sainte Thérèse. Here you'll find yourself right in the heart of Normandy and the Pays d'Auge, famous for its cheese, cider and Calvados, which you can try in our restaurant open daily. The hotel boasts an outdoor terrace and swimming pool which will add to your relaxation on sunny days. It is easily accessible for guests with reduced mobility. All rooms come with remote control TV, WI FI, direct dial telephone and are en-suite.

Tuesday 4th September

Today we make our way to the channel port for the crossing to France. We continue on to Normandy for our 4 night stay. Over the next 3 days visits will include:
