LONGLEAT & THE HISTORIC CITY OF BATH (As featured on BBC's Animal Park)

Sunday 1st August – Tuesday 3rd August 2010 (3 days)

Short Break

This is an experience like no other with incredibly close encounters with some of the fiercest, cutest and strangest animals from around the world. There's no need to travel to Africa to view wild animals, since the Longleat estate in Wiltshire has been home to a fantastic collection for forty years. Longleat isn't just a safari park, as the Elizabethan house was the first stately home to open its doors to the public after the Second World War and is today regarded as one of the best examples of Elizabethan architecture in Britain and one of the most beautiful stately homes. Over the many years further attractions have evolved resulting in Longleat becoming one of Britain's most popular tourist attractions. You can get lost in the Hedge Maze, voyage on the Safari Boats, experience simulator rides, journey on the narrow gauge railway or pop along with the children to meet Postman Pat and his friends in their very own Greendale Village! There's always something new to discover round every corner. Our included Passport ticket allows entry into all twelve attractions including the house and the safari park.
